Berlin/Magdeburg, June 2009

Dear Colleagues,

we invite you to the Colloquium on Combinatorics, which will take place in Magdeburg, November 13th and 14th 2009. We plan to begin November 13th at around 9:30 am, so we advise you to arrive in Magdeburg on November 12th. We expect to finish on November 14th at about 4 pm. The final talk will be given by an invited speaker.

As usual, there will be a mixture of invited and contributed talks (20 minutes). Every participant has the opportunity to present a contributed talk.

We have reserved some rooms in nearby hotels. The bookings have to be confirmed until October 15th. Please contact the conference webpage for more details.

A conference dinner is scheduled for November 13th.

If you are interested in participating, please send the attached registration form via fax or mail to one of the addresses above. Please register before October 15th. You may send us abstract and title for your talk by October 30th, but please inform us no later than October 15th whether you plan to give a talk.

Conference fee (including conference dinner) is 40 €. You may pay this fee when you register in Magdeburg at our conference office.

Important dates:

October 15th:	Hotels have to be booked.
October 15th:	Deadline for registration.
October 30th:	Last chance to send abstract and title of a contributed talk.
November 12th	Arrival day.
November 13th and 14th:	Colloquium.

More and updated information can be found on the conference webpage <http://www.math.uni-magdeburg.de/kolkom>. If you have any questions, send email to kolkom@uni-magdeburg.de.

We are looking forward to meeting you in November in Magdeburg.

Stefan Felsner
